

Southern Chapter/MLA Honors and Awards Committee
Annual Report
October 2005

Committee Members

Three replacements will need to be made for 2005-2006. Members will need to be appointed from Mississippi, Georgia, and South Carolina.

This year, all awards are being acknowledged: Martha Watkins, Academic Librarian of the Year, First Time Attendee, and three Honorary Memberships.

MLA Estelle Brodman Award for the Academic Librarian of the Year

Ada Seltzer, S/C Academic Librarian of the Year for 2004, is being nominated for the Brodman Award for 2006. Next year, Jie Lie, S/C Academic Librarian of the Year for 2005, will be nominated for 2007.

Honors and Awards Website

This year, the website was updated and will need more updating the start of 2005-2006. In addition to regular award announcement updates, the First Time Attendee Award will need to display details of the $1,000 limit, registration information, and reimbursement information.

Awards for 2004/2005:

Academic Librarian of the Year

Jie Li

Martha C. Watkins Memorial Scholarship

Jan Haley

Honorary Memberships

Janet S. Fisher

Sarah H. Gable

Anna-Liisa Rosner

First Time Attendee

Glendine Smith

Retirees

The following retirees are being recognized this year.

Tennessee

Janet S Fisher – Director for Development and Outreach, James H. Quillen College of Medicine Library, East Tennessee State University, Johnson City, Tennessee

Georgia

Anna-Liisa Rosner – Assistant Director of Technical Services, Instructor, Medical Library, Mercer University, Macon, Georgia

Carole Dean – Technical Information Specialist, Centers for Disease Control
Information Center, Atlanta, Georgia

South Carolina

Sarah Gable – Interim Director of Library Services, University of South Carolina School of Medicine Library, Columbia, South Carolina

Florida

Naomi Elia – Library Manager, Orlando Regional Healthcare, Orlando, Florida

Puerto Rico

Ana I. Moscoso – Former Library Director, Conrado F. Asenjo Library, San Juan Puerto Pico

Report submitted by Mary Cassanova
Honors and Awards, Chair
(404) 639-1262 (v)